JULIE BOYD REIGNS AS 1973 HOMECOMING QUEEN

Against a background of many watching faces, Julie Boyd, escorted by Clark Sanders and Larry Lawrence, was crowned homecoming queen of '73 by last year's queen, Linda Perkins.

Her court was made up of senior attendant, Arlene Farmer, escorted by Jim Oldham; junior attendant, Jane Kling, escorted by Ken Smith; sophomore attendant Kim Dickes, escorted by Mark Burgener; and freshman attendant, Robin McCain, escorted by Jim Wrigley.

VERA HUGHES REGIONAL FINALIST IN AFS COMPETITION by Scott Cordes

After numerous interviews and forms, Vera Hughes, EHS junior, was selected last month to be Eisenhower's possible representative for the AFS exchange student.

As a representative for EHS, Vera had to go to a regional interview. This is the deciding interview before she is off to some far-away place.

It will be some time before she receives the final word that says she is guaranteed to be accepted.

As Vera sweats out a mind-rocking period of time before she finds out her answer, we, the student body of Eisenhower, wish her good luck. We've got our fingers crossed.

WRECKED VETTE By Rod Vorndam

The Eisenhower automotive class was given a 1973 Vette by the General Motors Cooperation. The Vette which is a car every young man dreams of owning fell off a truck after being struck by a train will be disassembled by the automotive class and used for display purposes.

HERE LIES JEREMY TROY-- THIS YEAR'S FALL PLAY by Russ Cook

Homecoming '73' is history and the football team is about ready to wash and hang up their uniforms until next season. The Thespian Troop has started its activities with tryouts for the all-school play, Here Lies Jeremy Troy.

The first night of tryouts about forty students tried out for three male and two female parts. Fifteen to twenty were called back for the second night. The ones who were there the second night came to school the next morning to find out that the male lead, Jeremy, was given to Scott Rueter with Teri Fletcher as Catherine his wife.

Charlie Bickle, played by Kurt Sharp, is one of Jeremy's buddies from college. Charlie has come to mooch off of Jeremy. Being an artist, Charlie calls a modeling school to get a model, played by Laura Harris, to come to Jeremy's house to pose nude. Jeremy's boss, played by Larry Lawrence, is sure to get a few laughs when he comes for dinner.

The play evolves around Charlie coming to Jeremy's to live and threatens to tell that Jeremy received his law degree illegally. He didn't attend classes at the school, but graduated with honors by filling out cards for the records. Jeremy does this so that he can impress Catherine.

The play becomes very entertaining when Catherine thinks that the model is Jeremy's mistress. Catherine storms out in her confusion over the model. The model then pretends to be Jeremy's wife so the boss will have a good picture of the ideal family life Jeremy is leading.

Catherine returns and is forced into the role of a model who has given up her kingdom for love of--Charlie Bickle?

Here Lies Jeremy Troy was wrecked, because it is exceptionally funny. The small cast is a very dedicated one, and it is well worth a dollar to see it. It will be November 15, 16, and 17 at 7:30 p.m.

MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE

by Kenn Smith
and Dan Walker

Mr. Student, you have in front of you the new triangular milk carton. Notice how awkward it feels when you try to hold it in your hands. You'll probably also see a little puddle of milk in your hand. This is because the seams were not sealed tight enough. Now that you have your milk carton opened, and sitting in the palm of your hand, your main objective is to pour your milk into a glass.

There are several methods to accomplish this feat, the best being the quick turn-over above the top of the glass, with the following action being the "milk the cow" sort.

ISN'T IT SAD?

by Gary Warnick

At the beginning of the season, people were saying that we should be the makings of one of the finest football teams of the state of Illinois. All we had to do, they said, would be to back the team, put forth a little effort and spirit, and we'd win 'em all. Isn't it sad?

Did we back the team? Why sure. We had sell-out crowds at every home game. When we went out of town, we had practically a fleet of buses. They were turning the fans away at the gates.

Did we cheer? Why, sure. Why we cheered so loud, they could hear us for miles. They knew us as the most spirited high school in the state. Why, at every game, there wasn't a fan in the crowd who wasn't blue in the face, or hoarse from cheering.

We backed our team, but what happened? Surely it wasn't our fault that we lost.

WALKER'S WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS

by Dan Walker

My congratulations go out to all players and coaches of the EHS football staff on a fine football season. Although the varsity had a troublesome season, the freshmen and sophomores had remarkable seasons, and the over-all record for the three teams was over the .500 mark.

My congratulations also go out to Robin Liddell for his running during the season, and for his outstanding finish in the state cross-country meet in Peoria. Robin finished 10th and covered the three-mile course in a personal best time of 14:24 minutes, and less than thirty seconds behind the state champ. His heroics earned him a special award presented by the Eisenhower athletic boosters.

36 LETTERMEN HONORED AT ANNUAL SPORTS BANQUET

by Joanne Liddell and Chris Kaeding

The Fall Sports Banquet was held Tuesday, November 27, 1973 at 5:30. Every family brought a meat dish, hot dish, and a cold dish. Dessert, table-service and drinks were provided by the Booster club. Recognition was the theme of the night, as football players and cross country runners were awarded letters and numerals for their respective sports.

36 Letters were issued, 28 football, 2 manager, and 6 Cross Country. The Lettermen were:

Homecoming 1973

Arlene Farmer - Senior Attendant

Jane Kling - Junior Attendant

Kim Dickes - Sophomore Attendant

Julie Boyd - Queen

Robin McCain - Freshman Attendant

Tricycling can be fun at times, want to join Randy and John?

Me and Betty Lou, the teen angel, forever.

Working on the float gives you something enjoyable to do.

There's everyone smiling pretty, while Becky is being her usual self. Don't pick your nose!

Hey, we need some more napkins. Go hit all of the restaurants in town!

Boy, some people sure can make a clown out of themselves, like Donna and Cathi.

Waving hello is Jack In The Box.
Hi, Jack!

The Juniors won second place in the float competition while the Sophomores succeeded at being in last place. Oh well, they've got next year to try again.

The cheerleaders yell for the school spirit while Donna is behind them clowning off.

This year's floats turned out pretty well, along with a lot of work to accomplish them.

Mr. Anzelc and the Freshmen seemed rather busy working on their floats right before the parade. I bet they were relieved to get them done on time. Whew!

Well, the Freshmen won the judging on the floats this year. Who will win next year?

The homecoming parade turned out to be a success. Don't you think so?

There's pretty Arlene in the parade.

Come on! Clown around and give some Bazooka Bubble Gum to the kids.

Queen Julie Boyd

Senior Attendant,
Arlene Farmer

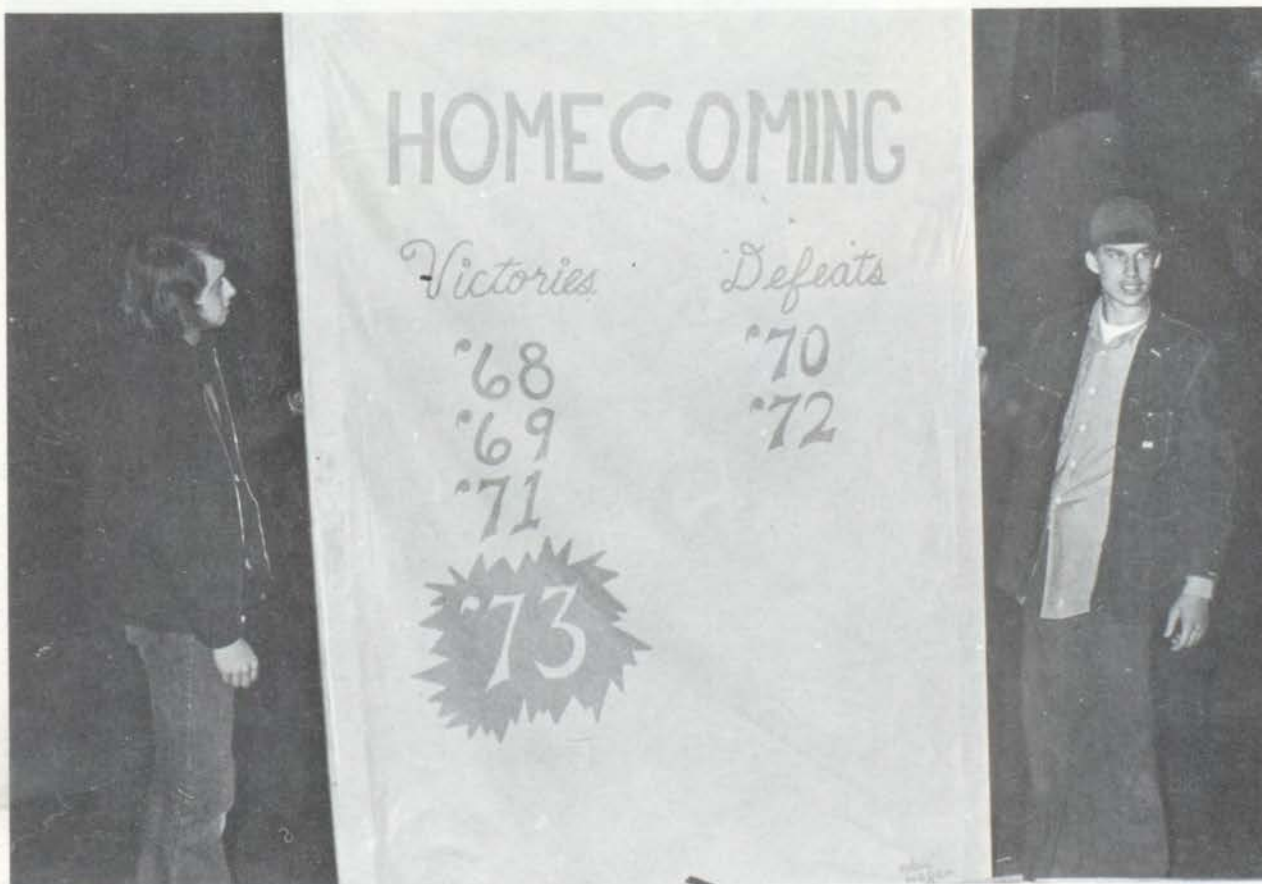

Junior Attendant,
Jane Kling

Sophomore Attendant, Kim Dickes. Freshman Attendant, Robin McCain.

Jeff and "Bird" show us our victories and defeats.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves at the Homecoming Dance.

Some people danced while others stood around and talked.

For those girls who didn't go this year, they are hoping they will be asked to go next year. Hear that fellas?

Julie seems to be dreaming about something while dancing to a slow song. Wonder what she's dreaming about?

Lee and his friend seemed to have had a good time at the dance, don't you agree?

The band did a good job and they sang their full lungs out!

Hey, what happened when the lights went out?!?!

Kevin and Angie were our King and Queen this year in the football jamboree.

Larry Lawrence was our speaker in the assembly.

All of you students stand up for your school song! Show everyone you've got the school spirit.

The E.H.S. German Club welcomes Freshmen.

Anybody want a drink?

The Freshmen were saying, "Where am I supposed to go?" at the Freshmen orientation.

Isn't one of you enough for the Freshmen, Mr. Scott???

Come on Jan, show them you've got the spirit!

Here we are with our horns and cheerleaders along with our fans.

Tell them what you think, Abe!

Well, there's "Bird" getting ready to blow his horn!

Voting for councils and homecoming Queen and attendants is one thing we do every school year.

We have publicity posters all over the place!

Mr. Bill Rohrscheib, principal at Eisenhower, works full time to keep the school running smoothly.

Administrators

Mr. G. Davis

Mr. Gordon Davis, Assistant Principal, works with Mr. Rohrscheib to maintain the school efficiently, Dean of Boys, Mr. D. Diller, is concerned mainly with discipline among the school's male enrollees. Miss Marie Weber, Dean of Girls, works with the attendance staff and co-sponsors the senior class.

Mr. Diller

Miss Weber

Day Custodians L-R: Leland Stevens, R. T. Sampson, Irma Archer, George Logan, John Grindol.

Faculty member of long standing, Miss Woodring supervises the Library, the new Media Center, and Staff Library. She is also a member of the Service Awards Committee. Mrs. Peterson advises the Library Club.

Mrs. Peterson

Mrs. Greene

Miss Woodring

Miss Lowder and Mrs. Kilton come in contact with nearly every student during the year. They are concerned mainly with attendance.

Mrs. Kilton, Miss Lowder

Custodians L-R: Jack Braughton, John Smith, Leo Uhrich.

Custodians L-R: Dale Karuher, Robert Dearman, Clara Gardner.

Mrs. Abbott

Mrs. Ballog

Mr. Anzelc

Besides being one of our more easily heard English teachers, Mr. Alexander is the head Varsity Football Coach. In his second year of teaching, Mr. Anzelc is one of the school's busiest teachers. He is the Yearbook Editorial Staff Advisor, Assistant Track Coach, and Freshman Class Advisor. Mrs. Baldwin co-sponsors the Eisenhower cheerleaders-Varsity and B Squad. Miss Ballog sponsors the Volunteer Club, a new club started this year.

Mrs. Baldwin

Miss Anderson

Understanding

Mr. Brink

Mrs. Bright

Miss Brauer has classes in both the math and clothing departments. She also is the Sewing Club Advisor, another new club this year. Mr. Brink is an avid Panthers sports fan and may be seen at most football and basketball games. His quadradic equations are also hard to beat. Mr. Buttz is our Freshman Football Coach.

Mr. Alexander

Mr. Buttz

Mr. Carlton

Miss Brauer

Hard-

Mr. Chamberlain

The Frosh Football and Varsity Tennis teams are forever indebted to Mr. Chamberlain for his supervision. He playfully claims that he hasn't made a mistake in at least five years. Miss Conrad is the Girls' Physical Education Department head and Co-Director of the Intramural Sports Program. Mrs. Cussins sponsors one of the school's nobler groups, Honor Society.

Mr. Coen

Mrs. Cussins

Working

Mr. Flake

Mr. DeLong

Mrs. Foran

Mrs. Funk

Miss Funk advises the Office Occupations Club, one of the school's more relevant and practical clubs. German Club and Panther Press are both on the upswing due to the efforts of Mr. Gallas. As an experienced English teacher, Mrs. Giles has learned the importance of body language and facial expression in driving home a point.

Mr. Gallas

Mrs. Giles

Patient

Besides sponsoring the Distributive Education Club and serving as Student Council Advisor, Mr. Griffin's efforts were greatly appreciated during Homecoming. Mrs. Hay is a Sophomore Class Advisor and co-sponsor of the Varsity Cheerleaders. Mr. Innis is in charge of Eisenhower's Sophomore Football Team.

Mr. Jackson

Mrs. Lauderdale

Mrs. Kistler

Mr. Johnson

Mrs. Keith

Mr. Krueger

After finishing a busy day as both physical education teacher and guidance counselor, Mr. Jackson still has plenty to do. He works with the Human Relations Committee, Freshman Basketball Team, and Varsity Track members. Mr. Kistler is the school's resident Director of Dramatics in charge of annual All-School plays and musicals.

Mr. LeMaster seems to be considered by the cross-country team members as "one of the guys". He also works with the sophomore basketball and varsity golf teams. Mrs. Martin recently took a group of Latin students to Rome. Miss Matthews serves as the school nurse.

Mr. Moore

Mr. Murphy teaches Boys' Physical Education and is one of the "calmer" Driver Training instructors. Varsity Wrestling and Baseball are both coached by Mr. Novak. He also sponsors the Human Relations Committee.

Provocative

Mr. Petty

Miss Price

Mr. Oman

Mrs. Olson

Mrs. Parker

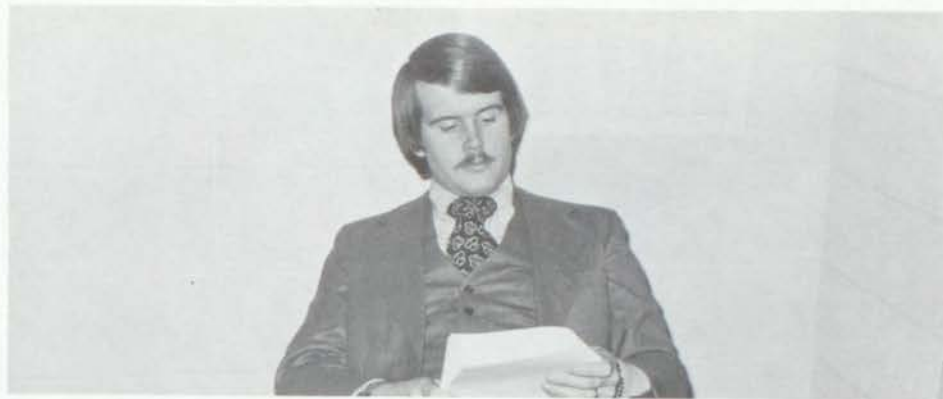

Mrs. Olson is head of the Language Arts Department here at Eisenhower. Concert, Cadet, Marching, Pep, and Jazz Bands are all under Mr. Oman's supervision. Mrs. Parker is a co-sponsor of the Junior Class.

Miss Reese

Mr. Schwalbe

Mr. Studebaker

Miss Taylor

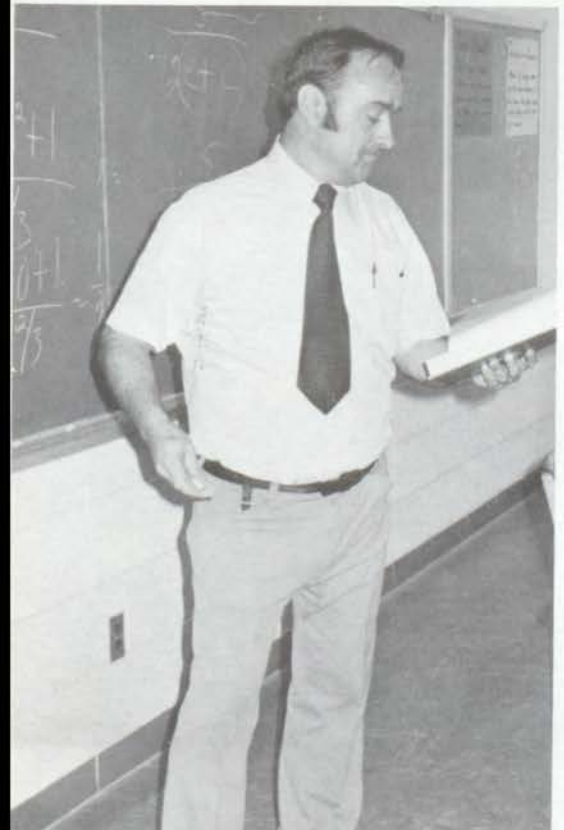

Miss Salmon

Mr. Scott

Mr. Schwalbe serves as Pantherama Business Staff Advisor. Mr. Scott accompanies all choirs on their concert trips around the city. Eisenhower's Police Counselor is Mr. Studebaker.

Mr. Seidl

Mr. Wilson is, in his own words, "Chief In-Resident Screw-Loose in Charge of Mismanagement and other sundry trivia." He also co-sponsors the Junior Class and is advisor of the Save Our World ecology club. Mr. Witt is the Panther Varsity Basketball Coach.

Mrs. Whited

Mr. Jackson

Mr. Thorpe

Mr. W. Davis

For these people counseling is serious business. For relaxation, Mr. Thorpe is an Assistant Football Coach working mainly with the sophomores. Mr. Reps co-sponsors the senior class.

Mr. Reps

PROBATION

Faculty '74

Articulate, patient, understanding-it is hoped that the Eisenhower faculty possess these and many other outstanding attributes. With these, our teachers do their best to prepare the student body for lives rich in achievement.
