HISTORICAL INFORMATION

The Macon County League of Women Voters organized in December 1923 with 55 members. This original group disbanded in 1931, but was re-established in April 1946 with the new name of the League of Women Voters of Decatur. Twenty-six members of this new group were divided into 3 study groups: a morning group, afternoon group, and evening group. Some of the first discussions that the groups studied were atomic bomb control legislation, the United Nations Organization, and world hunger. Some of the projects the League of Women Voters of Decatur worked on were: Decatur Public Schools #61, court watching, the public library, urban renewal, housing projects to name a few. They also held programs for people to meet candidates and learn about important issues in the community/state/country. The League of Women Voters of Decatur disbanded in 1994.
