

'MEET THE CANDIDATES'
OFFERS INNOVATIONS

The 1964 Candidates Meeting was the occasion for a number of innovations. Having our meeting before a general rather than a primary election, using a facility other than a school, adding a "coffee hour," using a Boy Scout color guard and inviting out-of-town candidates into League homes for dinner were all experiments this year. Response from the public and the candidates generally has been of a complimentary nature.

A few members have asked why local men running for the office of Representative-at-Large were not invited to speak. When it became known that we were having our meeting, we had requests from several candidates asking for speaking time (these were from various areas of the state). We could find no fair way to allot speaking time to these men without inviting all 236 candidates. Both county party chairmen knew about this arrangement. All at-large candidates present at the meeting were introduced.

In selecting a location for the meeting, several places were compared as to size, location, rent and suitability for a coffee hour. Rental fees were all within $5 of each other, so the other factors affected the final decision.

Bouquets are due to many people who worked so hard. First, the co-chairmen, Milli Protzman and Marilyn Tenney. Other hard-working League committee members included:

Questions--Florence Cox, Frances Doubleday and Lola Smith. Hostesses--Sara Kessler, Lola Smith and Frances Doubleday. Ushers--Betty Gogek and Willy Susler, co-chairmen; Helen Gill, Margaret Balgley, Marilyn Calhoun, Mary Dorner. Coffee Table--Louise Nelson, Marie Brensley, Ruthann Powers. In addition, cooperation from all news media was excellent. Mr. William Arnold, president of the Barn Colony donated his time and talent in painting 20 posters. Guy Thompson again arranged timekeeping services by the Commodore Toastmasters Club. Richard Heinkel, leader of Boy Scout Troop #104 arranged for the color guard. Ed Lindsay served as moderator for the meeting.

And the co-chairmen also wish to offer thanks to the League of Women Voters "Auxiliary"--those grand supporting husbands!
