Foreword

The Dorian Staff is using a musical theme to present this 1957 school year as a blended "composition" of high and low notes, of creativity and polished performance, of balance and change of pace, of the excitement and beauty of a wonderful piece of music.

If it is true that "the more we hear a well-remembered tune the more we love it," then may this Dorian be ever more cherished throughout the years.

DEDICATION

Dorian Staff makes dual dedication
this year:

Mr. John W. Reps
LAKEVIEW SUPERINTENDENT

We thank Superin- tendent John W. Reps

- for his deep interest in us and our activities, academic and extracurricular
- for his sincerity, friendliness, and courtesy to everyone
- for the fine services he has rendered as head of administration of Lakeview Schools.

DEDICATION

We salute Mr. John L. Glover

Mr. Glover, our versatile music director, has the knack of bringing out the best in us.

Year after year he has contributed to our learning and our entertainment at concerts and athletic events and has brought honors to Lakeview in community service and music contests.

His friendliness and patience, his energy and resourcefulness, his wit and cleverness have further endeared him to all.

Vibrant cheerleaders added sparkle and zip to major sports.

Science Academy entrants enjoyed lunch in a galmorous setting.

Harmony was vital keynote of this year's activities — whether strictly formal or delightfully informal . . .

Center of attention of baseball squad was this setter who loved to have his picture taken.

Senior committee consults with Principal Best on plans for a vocational observation day.

RIGHT: Panel of F.T.A. students discussed "Why I Want to Be a Teacher" during L.E.A. Centennial program in spring.

The tempo began

Sandra Blair showed part of her prize-winning Science Academy project on "Snakes" to visiting grade pupils.

slowly—then gathered momentum...

Brush College No. 2 companions of 12 years: Glenn Spain, Shirley Boys, Edwin Roarick, Sam York, Larry Garner, Sandra Dennis, Shirley Bilyeu, Stanley Wallis, and Robert Millington.

The English department evaluated texts this year and took part in school-wide curriculum survey.

As it ran the scale from spectator to participant—in a swirl of motion.

F.H.A. girls waved "Bon Voyage," as they illustrated '57 Style Show theme.

Mr. Glover originated and directed first Macon County Music Festival.

Posing on campus

Despite competition from Shelbyville's tallest a neat basket was made.

Main speaker at DO-OO banquet was Mr. Keith Purcell, Training Division Manager at Caterpillar.

Impressive flag ceremony at basketball games featured cheerleaders, majorettes and band.

There were overtones of pleasure even in the more serious moments.

How to keep a patient's record was shown to Seniors by Macon County Hospital personnel on Vocational Observation Day.

Waiting for the program to start was the enormous cast of "Spangled Spectacular" given by P.E. and Music departments.

Marko, the Magician, was about to saw a girl in half at winter Magic Show . . .

Junior High cheerleaders made a symmetrical pattern before their enthusiastic fans.

The lightweights hit a high note in achievement and sportsmanship . . .

Lightweights with big victory smiles as they won "second" in state elementary basketball tournament.

Fast action as teams disputed possession of ball.

Putting "everything they had" into a game insured many a victory for peppy junior leaguers.

Spectators defied autumn chill to thrill to night football.

Virtuoso playing was heralded with great pride . . .

And group work hit a familiar chord.

Testing for facts and understandings was a part of every class.

Darrell Gelsinger, science winner, gave talk to fascinated young visitors to Room 105.

Couples at Christmas Dance circle frosted trees "planted" on gym floor.

General Motors demonstrated scientific principles in an exhibit of amazing "things to come."

Eldorado school saw these 12-year graduates: Ray Kendall, Lew Harshbarger, Nola Robinson, Joyce Brown, Elinor Robinson, and Sam Hartness.

One of the most popular acts of Spangled Spectacular: pyramid builders.

Flexibility in arrangement and pattern increased enjoyment.

Quartet of tumblers.

Clown, Gordon Bell, took his comical act directly to the audience.

Freshmen operated an efficient and well-stocked concession.

Senior play, "The Great Big Doorstep," had "everything" according to its appreciative audience.

Duet of "make believe"
and
"service to others" made fond memories.

Juniors gave coat check service at game time.

John Snyder was tensed for action after successful rebound.

. . . Where furniture is not expensive

. . . It just looks that way.

Westward Ho!

east... north... south, too! Frontiers have changed. Generations ago, "Westward Ho!" was the cry. Today, newer, bigger frontiers have opened up . . . east . . . west . . . north . . . south . . . everywhere! But human characteristics have not changed: now, as then, the man with know-how, ambition and the will-to-work, wins! True, geographic boundaries no longer identify a frontier. Yours may be in medicine . . . industry . . . agriculture . . . research . . . a business of your own! How can you recognize your frontiers? Take a tip from the pioneers. They saw their frontier as a challenge to overcome obstacles . . . they knew that an honest day's work brought them an honest day's return. They found that freedom . . . happiness . . . peace . . . wealth . . . the right to be somebody, had to be earned . . . and were well worth earning!

Choose a worthy frontier for your goal. Then, be willing to work as hard for it as did your forefathers. On the other side of your frontier is success. Bon voyage!

JUNIOR PLAY

Three visitors converge on eccentric patient, Tom Straight.

Climax of Homecoming was the crowning of Queen Donna Bagy.

A roaring bonfire and snake dance sparked the Homecoming festivities.

Football game with Tuscola was well-played and hotly contested.

Waiting their turn.

A double tackle that paid off.

This is partial view of head table, where Mr. Keith Purcell of Caterpillar was principal speaker.

Coach Flaughter discussing strategy with player (?)

A beautiful ending to a skilled performance.

Lakeview football fans followed each tense situation with unfailing loyalty and support.

but can build tremendous loyalty and good will for themselves and their school.

The 1956 football team under the management of a new coach, Mr. Everette LaMar, started out with success. Due to the rough schedule and lack of experience, this luck didn't last long. But even though victory was denied, Lakeview is proud of the good spirit of the team.

Although the squad has accumulated experience, it will suffer from graduation of seniors: John Snyder, Ray Snelson, Steve Rainwater, Aubrey Kingston, Ted Marshall, Bill Challans, Eugene Leslie, Lloyd Seitz and Sam York.

Congratulations to John Snyder for being chosen to Central Conference All Stars, and for being selected as "Most valuable player" and Captain for the year. Larry Hanson was voted next year's captain.

Close harmony and tense excitement of basketball competition created a thrill a minute

Third quarter intermission at Warrensburg game—and we're still ahead!

Fans crowded the bleachers win or lose.

SCHOOL SONG

We're loyal to old Lakeview's
 Green and White,
 With those colors flying, we will cheer with all our might.
 We are proud to say that we're from Lakeview High!
 For its honor we will vie.

(10 Raahs)

Yea, Lakeview, let us get right
 in and win,
 Come on, Lakeview Spartans,
 may you never give in.
 We shall rise triumphant, victory will be won,
 For we never are outdone.

(15 Raahs)

YEA, LAKEVIEW!

Front Entrance

Tom made a difficult shot against a strong Pinckneyville team.

BASKETBALL

The 1956-57 basketball team started the season with a new coach and only two lettermen.

The Spartans played first rate teams this year, such as Pinckneyville, Jacksonville, Warrensburg, St. Teresa, Mt. Pulaski, and Maroa (the latter was one of the sixteen teams in state tournament).

Congratulations to Ray Snelson for being chosen the "Most Valuable Player" and captain of this year's team. Ray was also selected to be on the Central Conference All Stars.

Although the team had a record of 6 wins and 18 losses, the school feels that the squad set a new high in sportsmanship and fair play.

AN ENVIABLE RECORD

Since 1906 OF PRODUCING BLUE RIBBON
ANNUALS

“Blue Ribbon” is not merely a trade name or slogan, adopted for advertising purposes. We didn’t just pull it out of a hat. We earned the right to use it!

In competition with annuals submitted in State, Sectional, even National contests, since 1906, Huston-Patterson yearbooks have been rated tops — year, after year, after year.

And so, we’re proud and determined . . . proud of our past record — determined to make future accomplishments even better.
