Let it be off to a great start October 19. First, by Eisenhower beating Lamphier, and then to a super great dance, with "Just Us" as the group providing the music. It was an outstanding occasion.

The Miser

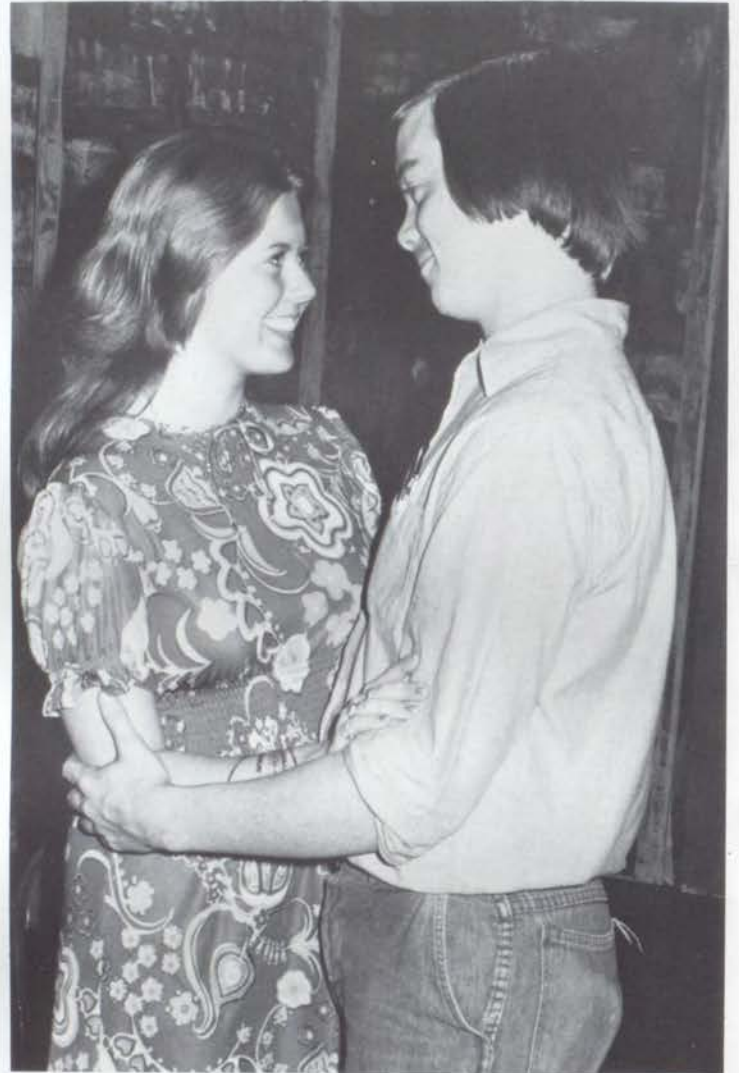

At Ease!

Sock Hop

This year's All-School Play was THE MISER by Moliere. The play was directed by Mrs. Kistler and starred Kurt Sharp as the miser. The play tells the story of miser and his comical antics ranging from an attempted marriage to his son's lover to loan shark dealings. The play featured Jim Wrigley, Laura Harris, Jeff Allsop, Kurt Sharp, Chris Dailey, Chris Kaeding, Leslie Roberts, Scott Rueter, Tim Irwin, Jo Keltner, Missy Grohne, Larry Lawyer, Bob Muschal, Mark Walker. As in past years the set and costumes were made by the students themselves; Paula Letner was chairman of the costume committee and Larry McVay was the Stage Manager.

Miser

A.F.S. Exchange Student

I think I can say for sure that this year in Decatur, and especially at E.H.S. have been a great experience for me. I don't think I will ever forget the time here.

My name is Jarle Loken, but here in Decatur I prefer people to call me "Charlie." I was born in Nordtjordeid, a town about an hour driving with car from my hometown, Sandame, Norway. My hometown is very different from Decatur because there are only 1,500 inhabitants, which is less people than there are students at E.H.S. The town is on the end of one of our beautiful fiords. On each side of the fiord there are mountains with "eversnow" and glaciers.

Here in Decatur I live with the Wayne A. Long family at 2285 East Wood Street.

To compare schools; my school at home has 300-400 students and we have about 18 subjects instead of six. The school year is the same as here, but we have longer Christmas and Easter vacations and school's out about June 20.

At home I participate in soccer, team-handball, volleyball, and skiing.

I've enjoyed the time here at Eisenhower.

Jarle Loken.

In Memory
Of Marvin
Green

Marvin Green was born December 11, 1957 in Decatur and Macon County Hospital, Decatur, Illinois. His parents are Lawyer and Leora Green.

He attended Washington School from kindergarten through sixth grade. That same year during summer school he attended Thomas Jefferson Junior High School where he completed the eighth grade. He then entered Eisenhower High School as a freshman.

Marvin was a great inspiration in our lives. He brought laughter, happiness, and much love to all our hearts. For we know that he is gone but within our hearts he will always live. We all enjoyed life together and Marvin enjoyed the challenges life offered; therefore he brought warmth to everyone's soul. Therefore we shall never forget Marvin, the little but mighty boy in our lives.

Girls athletics is a fast growing section of Eisenhower sports. Besides gymnastics; there are teams in volleyball, swimming, tennis, and track. In addition to these exclusive girl's teams boy's interscholastic teams may include girls as was shown by the Eisenhower golf team. In the future Eisenhower sports will be more and more influenced by the girl's teams.

New Found

This year was the first year with the new school zones. We have in our school students from Stephen Decatur H.S. this year. We now have a newly found spirit here. Something we all needed.

Ms. Martin

If there was a spirit stick for teachers it would go to Coach Alexander every time. Under his sponsorship, the freshman class backed their team with more enthusiasm than any other class.

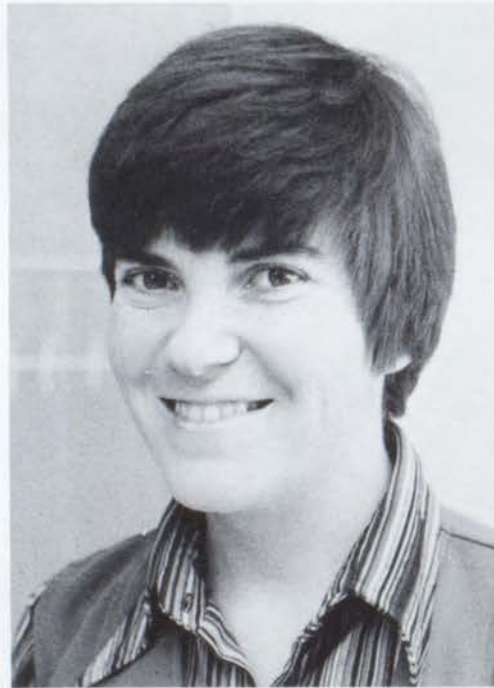

Ms. Abbot — Social Studies

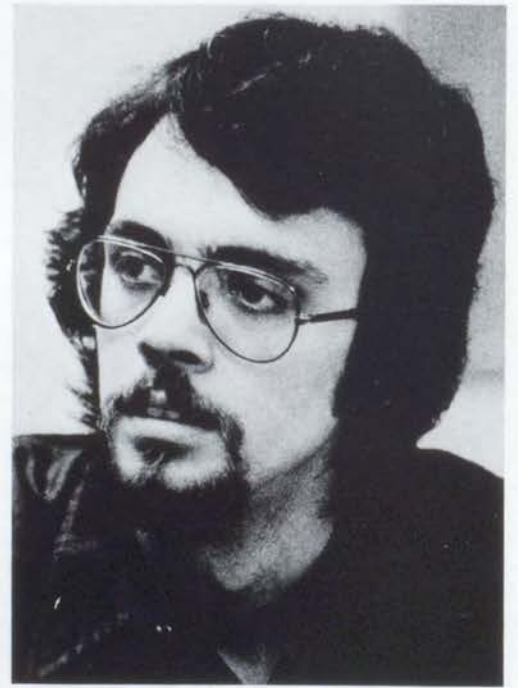

Mr. Alexander — English

Mr. Anzelc co-sponsored the sophomore class and was assistant track coach.

Ms. Anderson — Math

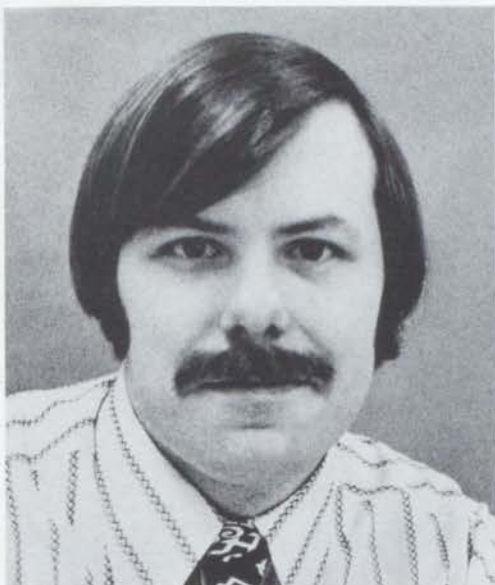

Mr. Anzelc — Social Studies

Ms. Baldwin was busy TRYING to keep the cheerleaders in line. She also helped with girls' intramurals.

Ms. Baldwin — Physical Education

Mr. Berry — Special Education

Ms. Brauer — Math

Ms. Brauer mountarily assisted a student chairman in the production of over fifty os-tumes and accessories for the all-school play and "Brigadoon".

Mr. Bright — Math

Ms. Bright — Physical Education

Ms. Bright spent most of her afternoons in the fall and spring training girls in gymnastics and tumbling.

Mr. Brink — Math

Ms. Brooks — Physical Education

Mr. Brink co-sponsored the freshman class and could often be seen peddling "Panther Pride" buttons through the halls. He would term his contribution as "trivial", Ms. Brooks coached the girls' track team.

Mr. Buttz supervises sophomore football and freshmen basketball. Mr. Carlton "shapes our minds" — he handles mainly freshman and sophomore courses.

Mr. Buttz — Physical Education

Mr. Carlton — Social Studies

Ms. Casey Was a new addition to the Eisenhower faculty, replacing the retiring Mr. Flake. Mr. Chamberlain's zoology classes are famous (or infamous) for dissections. Students have examined specimens ranging from earthworms, to giant grasshoppers, to starfish, to sharks and pig embryos.

Ms. Casey — Math

Mr. Chamberlain — Science

Mr. Coen raised the Eisenhower orchestra into an elite bracket of its own this year. Only the best wind players were permitted to participate. These student rehearsed regularly twice a week during their gym periods, instead of the old method of stealing orchestra practice from concert band time. Mr. Coen assists Mr. Scott in musical theater productions.

Mr. Clark — Business

Mr. Coen — Orchestra

Ms. Collins — Special Education

Ms. Conrad — Physical Education

Girls' interscholastic sports came on strong this year. Ms. Conrad coached our Winning girls' tennis team. She is also an assistant girls' basketball coach.

Mr. Cordes — Industrial Arts

Ms. Crouch — Science

Despite a sizeable physical handicap, Ms. Crouch teaches science at Eisenhower and physical education at Lakeview.

Ms. Cussins

Mr. W. Davis

Ms. Cussins told a class once "Maybe I flatter myself, but I like to think that people can learn something in my classes," and they certainly do. Ms. Cussins implants a love of fine literature and language in dozens of students every year. Students respect Ms. Cussins because she treats students as intelligent adults, not as flighty children.

Ms. Heise replaced Ms. Edwards as Eisenhower's school nurse when Ms. Edwards left in the middle of the year.

Mr. DeLong — Special Education

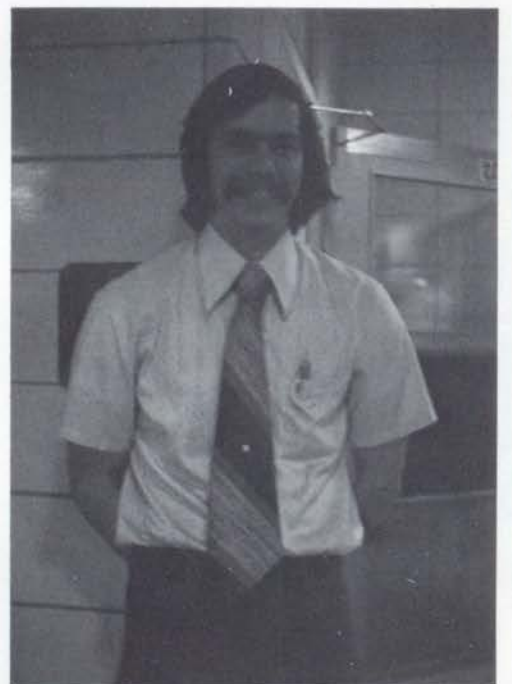

Ms. Heise — Nurse

Mr. Force is one of several new teachers this year. He is often found after school or on his break talking to and explaining problems to his students.

Ms. Foran — Social Studies

Mr. Force — Math

Ms. Funk is the adviser to Office Occupations and spends her mornings working with those in the program.

Mr. Fox — Social Studies

Ms. Funk — Business Education

Mr. Gallas — German

Ms. Giles — English

Ms. Giles is best known for her speaking classes and her work in all areas pertaining to speeches: Graduation and "The voice of Democracy" contest.

Mr. Griffen — Business Education

Ms. Hay — Girls P. E.

Mr. Griffen is a vital member of Eisenhower's faculty, besides teaching his regular classes he is the Student Council and D.E. adviser. Ms. Hay spends many a night after school working with her cheerleaders.

Mr. Hamilton — Social Studies

To the relief of many, Ms. Heiden came to school last fall with a new, modern image. Her classes in chemistry and physics may sometimes be fun, and sometimes beyond understanding, but they are always a challenge.

Ms. Harrison — Home Economics

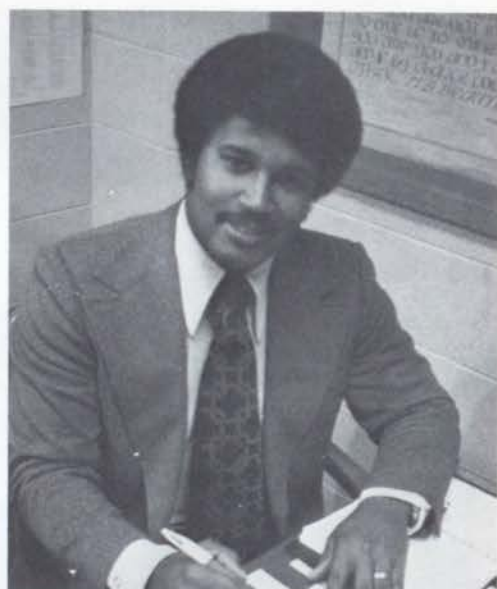

Ms. Heiden — Science

Mr. T. J. Jackson is the "let's-get-involved" man around school. Under his sponsorship, the Human Relations Committee became a powerful body this year. An organization that he helped to establish, The Salt and Pepper Shakers, was a major factor in the sharp rise in school spirit.

Mr. Hudson — Industrial Arts

Mr. Jackson — Guidance

Mrs. James returned to us this year after a brief period of teaching elsewhere. She has moved from the English department to social studies.

Ms. James — Social Studies

Ms. Keith — Business

Ms. Kistler — English

Mr. Krueger — Industrial Arts

Ms. Kistler is more than just a teacher. She spends most of her waking hours during the spring and fall on the school's major theater productions. Directing a normal play is hard work, but blocking action for a cast of forty requires super talent. Because of Ms. Kistler, Eisenhower has become famous for musicals — in recent years, MUSIC MAN, ONCE UPON A MATTRESS, and BRIGADOON.

Ms. Lauderdale — English

Mr. Lawson — Industrial Arts

Mr. LeMaster — Science, Health

Ms. McBride — Home Economics

Mr. LeMaster guides our under-publicized golf team and coaches sophomore basketball.

Ms. McReynolds returns to Eisenhower after a while not teaching. She has returned to her role as the school's film expert and also has become advisor for the Panther Press.

Ms. McReynolds — English

Ms. Maier — Special Education

Although Ms. Martin's first love is obviously Latin she also is a counselor and English teacher.

Ms. Martin — Latin

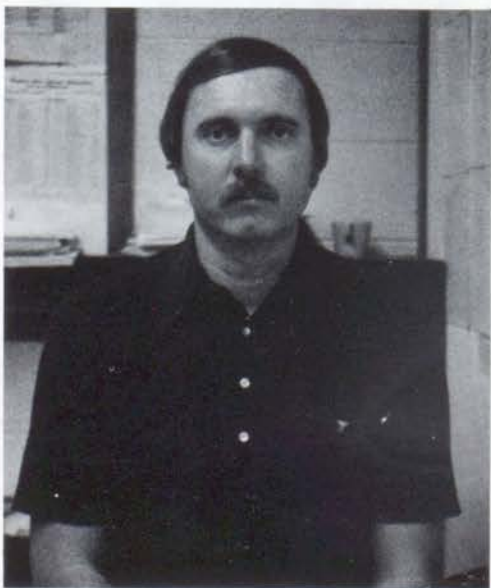

Mr. Moore — English

Mr. Murphy has some very busy days, he not only teaches gym classes but also is Athletic Director and a drivers training teacher.

Mr. Mullen — Social Studies

Mr. Murphy — Boys P.E.

Mr. Novak — Boy's P.E.

Ms. Ogles — Spanish

Mr. Novak is both varsity wrestling and baseball coach. Also he is a driver training teacher. Ms. Ogles is the Spanish Club advisor.

Ms. Olsen — English

Mr. Oman — Band

Ms. Olsen is the Pantherama Editorial advisor. Mr. Oman supervises all the bands here at E.H.S. from Concert to Jazz.

Bob Zagle

Ms. Parker — French

Mr. Petty — Social Studies

Ms. Reese — Social Studies

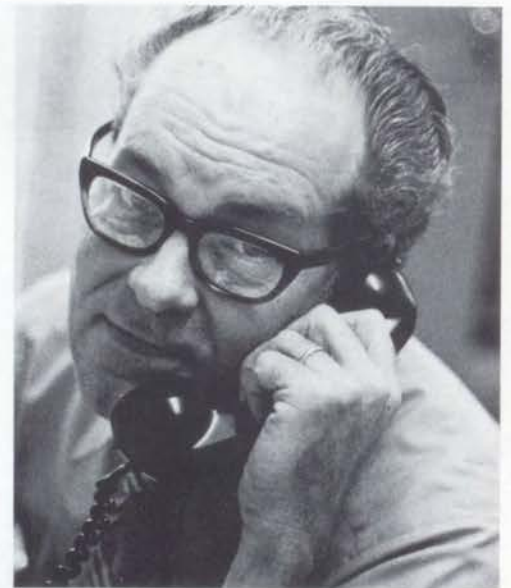

Mr. Ryterski — Industrial Arts

This was Mr. Studebaker's second year as police liaison officer at Eisenhower. He serves as our chief legal authority and is on hand to aid students with problems ranging from child abuse to gang fights.

Ms. Simons — Guidance

Mr. Studebaker — Police Liaison Officer

Mr. Schwalbe sponsors the Pantherama Business Staff which handles advertising and subscriptions to the yearbook.

The contest scores of Mr. Scott's choral groups increase steadily every year due to his talents. Mr. Scott also directs the chorus every year in musical theater productions.

Mr. Schwalbe — Business

Mr. Scott — Vocal Music

Mr. R. Smith — Physical Education

Mr. S. Smith — Physical Education

Despite his Playboy appearance, Mr. Steve Smith proved to the guys this year that it's hard work that makes a great cross-country team. Mr. Smith also worked with the freshman and sophomore wrestlers. Mr. R. Smith was a new arrival this year, and coaches sophomore football.

Mr. Tate — Physical Education

Ms. Taylor — Science

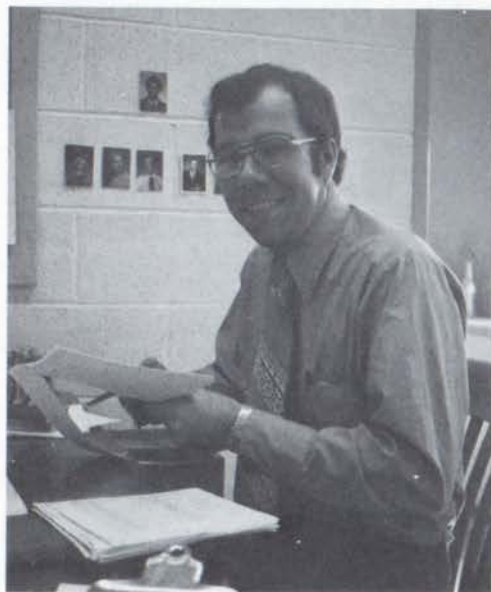

Mr. Thorpe — Guidance

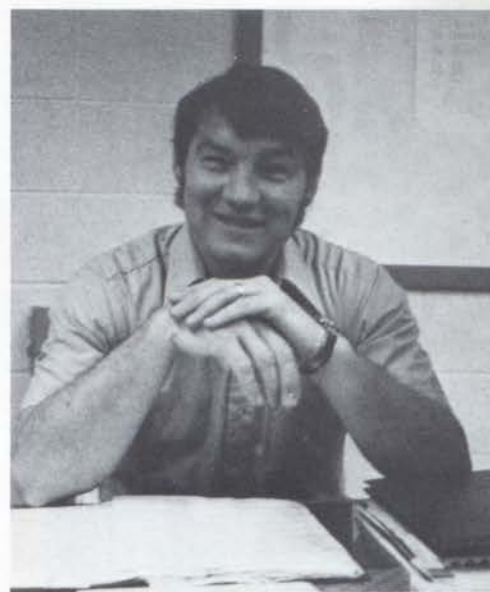

Ms. Turnage — Art

Mr. Thorpe serves as freshman Football coach, and says he is in charge of girls' basketball. He is also a regular at Eisenhower sports events of all kinds.

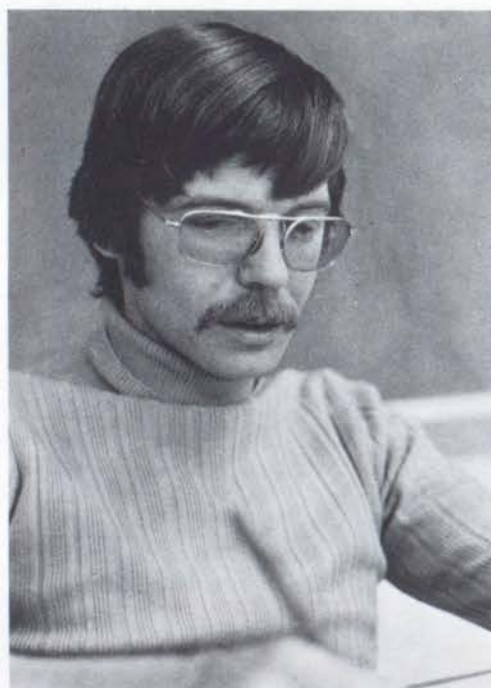

Mr. Waack is the "man-in-charge" of the Special Education department . . . Freshman and Sophomores baseball is Mr. Watson's coaching job each spring.

Mr. Waack — Special Education

Mr. Watson — Boy's P.E.

Mr. White — English

Ms. Whited — Guidance

Ms. Wilson works mainly with remedial reading

Ms. D. Wilson — Special Education

Mr. Wilson — Science

Ms. Wilson — Special Education

Although you would swear Mr. Wilson was Eisenhower's resident zoo-keeper all of the animals in his classroom are really for his biology classes.

Ms. Wiseman — Home Ec.

Mr. Witt — Business Education

Mr. Witt only fronts as a mild-mannered (!?) business ed. teacher, he is really the brains behind the varsity basketball team and the varsity football line and deense coach.

Ms. Woods — English

And then Zeus said to Mercury...

—Mrs. Martin
