HISTORICAL INFORMATION

The Heritage Network of Decatur and Macon County (Heritage Network) in Illinois was founded in 1988 to foster community pride by offering support and guidance to individuals and groups who are collecting, preserving, and interpreting the heritage of the area. This organization meets four times a year, and tries to promote each member through publicity and programs.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection contains meeting agendas, minutes, brochures, and membership lists from the Heritage Network. The collection is 1 linear foot.

This collection came to the Library from multiple sources, so there was no original order to the collection. It was organized with the researcher in mind.
