*Karen,
 It's sure is fun knowing you,
 remember the first "CopNaps" we went to. Best Wishes Always.

SUCCESS MARKS '63 HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

Congratulations go to the senior class for working very hard to make the Homecoming a success. The football team for winning the game, Carolyn Luttrell for getting Homecoming queen and all classes on their hard work on all of the clever floats.

The Homecoming started off with a bang with the assembly at 3:15 p.m. Friday, October 4, and ended with a tired, but happy bunch. The gym was beautifully decorated in silver and royal blue, and adding to the beauty was the queen's court as you see them at the right. The Freshman class won the outstanding float award in the parade. Their theme was, "Tug On To Victory."

The week's activities left everyone tired but happy and looking forward to Homecoming next year.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY REVIEW

. . . as taken from the Echo

Lakeview's junior class presented the play "Ten Little Indians," by Agatha Christie, on November 15 and 16. The cast vividly portrayed a rather strange group of people gathered together on an island filled mysteries. The play was magnificently directed by Miss Carolyn Hall, Lakeview's new English teacher, who was well assisted by the student director, Patty Heffington.

The cast was selected by Miss Hall after tryouts during October. They were: Sir Lawrence Wargrave, Gehl Tucker; Phillip Lombard, John Malcom; Vera Claythorne, Barbara Burgess; Mr. Blore, John Creekmur; General MacKenzie, Doug Bearce; Anthony Marstan, Tice Sharp; Mrs. Rogers, Arlene Busse; Mr. Rogers, Jim Bauman; Emily Brent, Edith Alexander; Narracott, Ed Malone; and Dr. Armstrong, Ginger Streeval.

In addition to this, Bill Bledsoe took charge of sound effects. He was responsible for the "eerie" voice which put the whole background of mystery into the play during the first act. Brenda Clark was the very able stage manager of the play. Jacque Bearce and Judy Winwood were in charge of make-up and several committees were organized for other jobs. Miss Casey and Mrs. Barnes were always on hand for advice. The play was most successful, with the class having a net profit of $270. Congratulations are in order for a fine play.

With the disappearance of the Spartan Spirit Jug (pictured at left), our school spirit rose. After the recovery of the Spirit Jug, our spirit rose even higher with the help of our cheerleaders and mascot, Linda Agapoff, (pictured #2). The enthusiasm displayed at the Round Robin Tournament resulted in the winning of the Sportsmanship trophy (pictured #3 and #4) to L.H.S.
