

Eastern Woman Will Talk to Club Divisions

An outstanding speaker and person of experience and authority, Miss Louise K. Post of New York city is being brought to Decatur Tuesday for two addresses. Civics division of the Woman's club and the League of Women Voters are sponsoring the meetings. Miss Post speaks at 10 a. m. in the Woman's club building, 308 West Main, on "Disarmament" and at 1:30 p. m. in Wilson's cafeteria, where she will be the luncheon guest of the League of Women Voters. She will speak then on "International Relations. She leaves at 2:40 p. m. for Peoria to fill an engagement.

Miss East is secretary of the Department of International Co-operation to Prevent War of the National League of Women Voters. Mrs. George Wright is leader for the morning.

Miss Chapman Giving Party for Miss Beall

Miss Edith Chapman is entertaining Wednesday evening for Miss Elizabeth Beall, whose engagement to Douglas Artick is to take place in the very near future.

Former Millikin Man Weds Illiopolis Girl on Saturday

Miss Blanche Sutherland of Illinois and Paul W. Neff of Moweaqua a former Millikin student, were married Saturday in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland, by Rev. D. B. Anderson of the Methodist church. Supper was served afterward.

Miss Dorothy Sutherland, sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. D. B. Anderson. The bride wore ivory crepe de chine with white accessories, and carried bride's roses, baby's breath and lilac. Her handkerchief was one of Wood family, and that the W. M. Powell home, and that the W. M. Powell family has occupied for a number of years. The Browns have been living on the lakeshore all summer. Their new home is one of the most distinguished residences in Decatur, and is one of only a few in this part of the country that has genuine old purple Boston glass in the upper front windows on the west side of the house.

Three Y. W. C. A. Clubs to Meet

Three clubs of the Y. W. C. A. will have meetings this week and will discuss fall plans. The Y. W. C. A. will have meetings this week and will discuss fall plans. The Y. W. C. A. will have meetings this week and will discuss fall plans.

F. D. H. Group to Meet Thursday

Mrs. Barack's Chairman of Sorority Alliance Chapter House

Newman Boy to William-Mary College Again

John Henry Eversole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eversole of Newman, returned last week to his work in historic William and Mary college in Virginia. This is his senior year, and he will be editor in chief of the William and Mary college magazine. He also is president of the board of control of student activities. Mr. Eversole was graduated from Culver military academy as a second lieutenant and probably will have a part in the military assignment for the sesquicentennial of Cornwallis' surrender at Yorktown in October. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the state of Virginia, the government and others are spending about $100,000,000 in and around Williamsburg in restoring it to Colonial splendor for the celebration.

Charming Houses in One of City's Brown Family

Mrs. E. J. Brown and her family moved last week into the handsome old house that was formerly the home of the W. M. Powell family. The house is one of the most distinguished residences in Decatur, and is one of only a few in this part of the country that has genuine old purple Boston glass in the upper front windows on the west side of the house.

C. D. of A. Has Benefit Party Tuesday Night

Proceeds Go to Buy Shoes and Clothing for Needy School Children

The first event of the season for Catholic Daughters of America will be the benefit card party Tuesday evening. Proceeds will go to help the needy, particularly to buy shoes and clothing for parochial school children. The party will be open to the public, beginning at 8 p. m. in K. of C. hall. Two prizes will be given in bridge, pinocle, 500 and burco. A bronze table is fixed into the room and is of matched rubber inlay tiles. The floor is in pale green tiling, and the room is decorated with a central reflector and a central lens which can be focused speedily. Watercolor painting is in progress. The room is dedicated to the memory of Herbert Tureman, M. D., whose life was a tribute of love, loyalty and devotion to his fellow men. Mrs. Tureman, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Powell.

Prof. Mills Marries in New York

MRS. ALBERT T. MILLS
Mrs. Martha Roberts Kimball and Prof. Albert T. Mills of Millikin were married last Tuesday on Bull Island, in the lower part of Saratoga Lake, N. Y. They are coming to Decatur in time for the opening of Millikin, and will be at home in 255 Oak Crest.

Marie Powers Tureman Dedicates New Operating Room to Husband's Memory

Of interest to friends of the former Marie Powers of Decatur, Kas City, is the fact that she has given a beautifully equipped new operating room to St. Luke's hospital in Kansas City in memory of her husband, the late Dr. Herbert G. Tureman. The room was dedicated late in August.

Dr. Tureman had worked for many years in this hospital, and the gift was from Mrs. Tureman and their children. The room was dedicated by Bishop Spencer in the presence of friends and relatives. It is completely equipped with the latest type of operating table, instrument tables, and accessories. The room is of matched rubber inlay tiles without color. A bronze table is fixed into the room and is of matched rubber inlay tiles. The floor is in pale green tiling, and the room is decorated with a central reflector and a central lens which can be focused speedily. Watercolor painting is in progress. The room is dedicated to the memory of Herbert Tureman, M. D., whose life was a tribute of love, loyalty and devotion to his fellow men. Mrs. Tureman, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Powell.

Members of the club will have supper at 6 p. m. preceding the benefit. Reservations are to be made at once. Fall plans. The Y. W. C. A. will have meetings this week and will discuss fall plans.