This is a book about friendship . . .

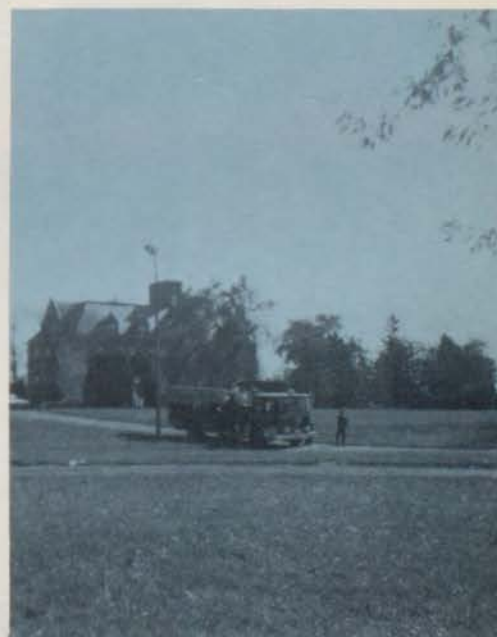

FRIENDSHIP

When you're feeling lonesome and life is dull it seems,
Bring me but a flower and I'll tell you all my dreams.

There's no need for loneliness,
no reason to be blue.
Bring me but a smile and I'll sit and talk with you.

I value friendship highly as the wiser side of love.
Bring me but a teardrop
'cause it's you I'm thinking of.

—John Skelley

. . . and so it is a book about love.

YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND

When you're down and troubled
And you need some love and care,
And nothing, nothing is going right,
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night.
You just call out my name,
And you know wherever I am,
I'll come running to see you again.
Winter, spring, summer, or fall,
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there
You've got a friend.
Keep your head together
And call my name out loud.
Soon you'll hear me knocking at your door.
You've got a friend.

And how was your day, Mr. Howley?

HOMECOMING

Bonfire brings back old friends.

Every year we come home, to celebrate life in general, and our football team in particular. And to get the whole celebration started, we have our traditional bonfire. Anticipation mounts as the day wears on. People are rushing around making last minute preparations. Out in the parking lot, a masterpiece is being built from crates and logs and useless pieces of wood. Useless, until they become an integral part of the beauty of our fire. There's something friendly, and almost magical in those eerie flames. Hundreds of smiling faces, lit by the flickering fire eagerly join in the cheering, the jokes, the applause, and the joy of being together.

Clockwise: Coach Munn seems baffled as to how to praise his Bulldogs high enough, and saves the best wine till last—Coach Howley. Cheerleaders take over to lift spirit higher with a "hey-bop-a-ree-bop" (whatever that means!) A few friendly faces in the crowd. The full-blown fire burns free.

We fanned the flame of friendship and it fired love. Clockwise: The Homecoming Queen candidates nervously wait for the important announcement. The court reacts to the students' choice of Barb Bean. The crowds mill and mix. A little chilly, but waiting for the flames to mount higher, friends huddle against friends. Wood already touched with fire is not hard to set alight. Neither is spirit.

Mr. Kelly extinguished the bonfire that was.

Kent Hensley goes "blush" over the wild applause he received.

Homecoming '73 --- people make it

Homecoming 1973 was definitely a comedy of errors this year, as far as the parade was concerned. Every float went through panics, mistakes, and last minute revisions! To start out right, the freshmen thought of a really great idea for their float. They started working early, in the hopes that all would go well. Several broken glasses, one broken window, and a cute little experiment with colored napkins later, the frosh float emerged lookin' good. Sophs got off to a slower start, due to road construction, etc., but their float also appeared in one piece for the parade. The juniors did quite well, as they produced an overwhelming "rockin' Bulldog" who only had a few minor technical problems. Those infamous seniors were a different story . . .

Our "spirit spreaders", the varsity cheerleaders on the move for our Bulldog champs!

Court members Sue Althoff and Linda Grieve provided a little extra sunshine to boost our soaring spirits.

Frosh foretell the results of the Homecoming game with their float "Disconnect the Rockets" and that's just what we did!

Senior float lets the Rockets know "We Never Promised U(n)ity a Rose Garden." All they got was "thorns"!

COMPLIMENTS OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES PARISH

"home."

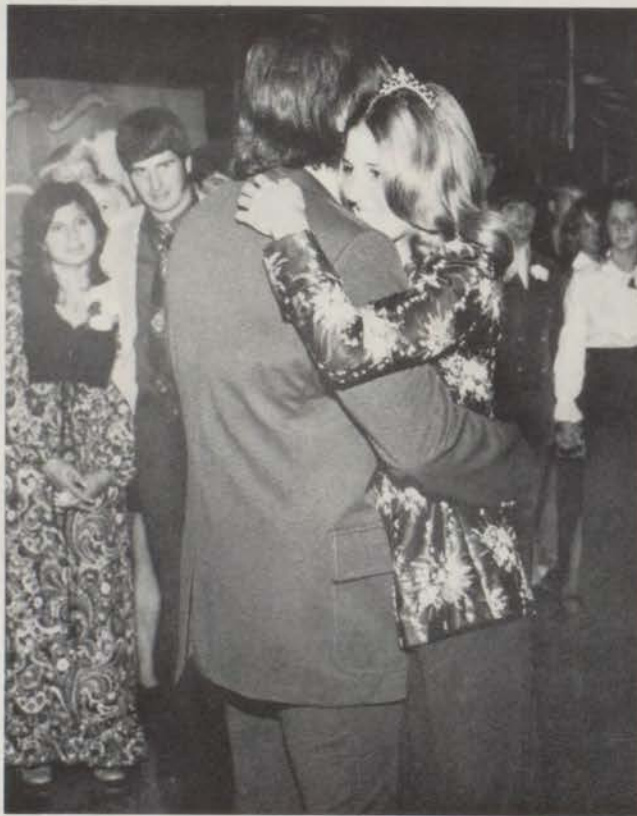

Sophomores demonstrate the awesome might and power of the Bulldogs as they "Bring 'em Down To Earth."

... an underabundance of Kleenex, and a vicious truck tire that attacked the float, added to overall confusion. Finally, everyone was ready for the parade, and began to line up amidst horn honking and shouting--but where is the police escort? Twenty minutes later the parade got under way. As the parade wound its way through Decatur, under a gorgeous autumn sky, all the work and confusion finally become worthwhile.

Welcome to OUR wonderful world . . .

Our queen, Barb, walks happily through the crowd on the arm of her escort Joe. Sue, Bob, Onno, and Ann smile as Kevin tries to pick up a new date. And Mark said, "Why didn't you tell me you turned into a pumpkin at midnight, BEFORE we got here?!" Barb and Joey start the dancing as others look on. Onno may "no comprendre" a few things but he sure caught on to Homecoming—thanks to tutor Ann! President Bob shows off his lovely date, Sue. Annette and Dave truly belong in the fairy tale of Disneyland—he as the football playing prince, and she as the cheerleading heroine. Let's hope they all live "happily ever after."

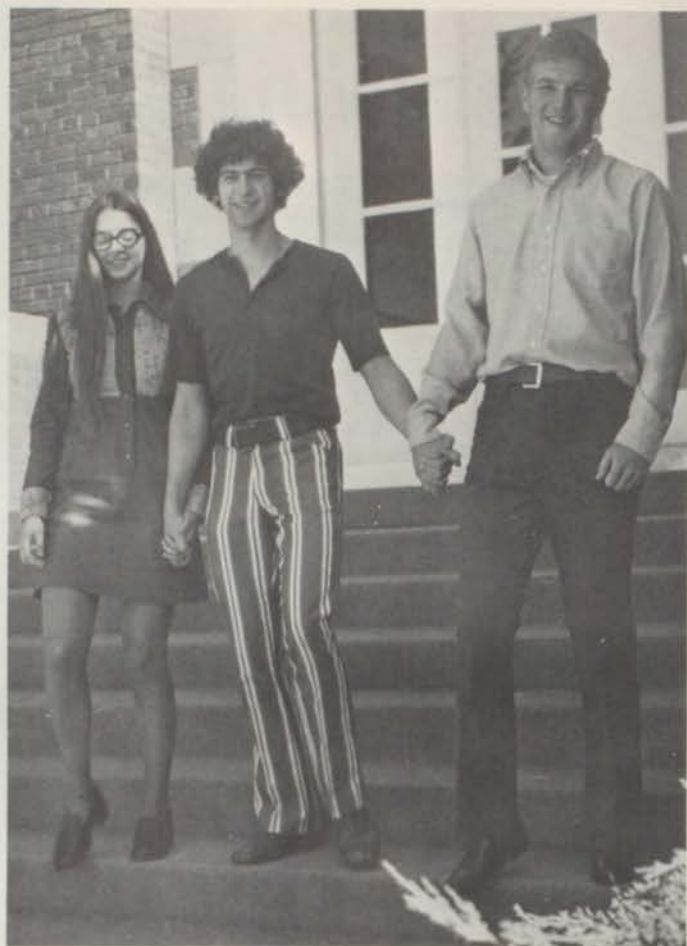

ACTIVITIES

Leaders are those who refuse to be crazy the way everybody else is crazy and try to be crazy their own crazy way. This describes the Student Council of St. Teresa to a T. Bob Hayward starts everyone's day off right with his own crazy way of making the announcements. Meanwhile, Kent Hensley and Beth Seidman run around in circles, helping to keep things straight. (Blessed are those who run around in circles for they shall be called big wheels.)

NHS passes on the flame of knowledge.

Barb Bussing reads a poem by John Skelley, "Pass It On."

Life, a comet in the darkness that burns when other lights are gone.
The truth shines through us all.
Pass it on, pass it on.

There are others in the dark who cry
because they think that they are blind.
They need someone to reach out and open up their minds.

Truth is truth and love is love for those of us who are unafraid to face up to tomorrow and forget mistakes we've made.

But we haven't time to waste:
it gets darkest just before the dawn.
The truth has touched our lives and we all must pass it on.

-John Skelley

FACULTY

Faculty is a smile . . .

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves. Do not seek the answers that cannot be given you, because you would not be able to live them--and the point is to live everything. Live the questions now. Perhaps you will gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the ANSWER.

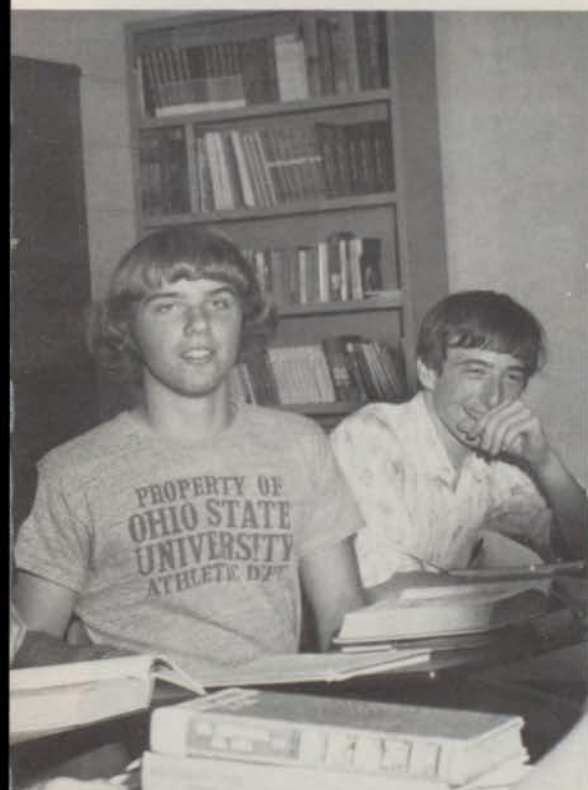

Mrs. Renner solves many problems for many people as secretary.

Far Left: He's got the cutest little baby face! Mr. Howley teaches social studies and religion. Left: "Are you supposed to be in here, dear?" Sr. Ancilla checks attendance in the library.

"A-A-A space S-S-S space . . ." drones Mrs. Reed in typing class.

Below: Coach Munn and Sue Bradley hassle over football pictures and yearbook deadlines. Mr. Munn says, "Oh, you're kidding—none of them turned out?!" In between football games, Mr. Munn teaches American history. Right: Sr. Margaret has special classes in world history.

Faculty — another word for friendly.

Coach Sr. Janet studies geometrical figures of books in the religion resource center. She teaches math and religion.

Aren't you glad you had Miss Dial? Don't you wish everybody did? Miss Dial teaches English.

Sr. Clotilde teaches chemistry and religion.

Mrs. Sorenson teaches Spanish.

Bob Norton--All-State, All-Conference, City Player of the Year. Vicious, devastating, always there-where needed during this season. Bob was the heart of the team effort and most devious.

Mike Boyd--All-Conference, All-City quarterback. Voted most valuable player by teammates.

Right On!

Try to remember back to last year when everyone was so proud of a team that was the best ever: the team with only one loss. Well, now try to think of a team that outscored its opponents 404 to 6 and never lost a game. That had 13 players on All-Conference, ten on All-City and two on All-State. Quite a feat! Well, if you can picture something like that, you get a pretty good idea of the '72-'73 Bulldogs.

—Bob Norton

Even the referee can't believe they threw it to Jack.

Mike O'Connell-All-Conference, All-City fullback. Leader of city scoring for the second year in a row with 114 points.

This year we gathered 4,907 yards in total offense. This dream backfield accounted for 4,007 of it.

Dave Barr--All-Conference, All-City Defensive end. Sullivan's Mark Calvin will always remember him.

Jim Forbes--All-Conference, All-City linebacker. He led the defense with 85 tackles.

Come on back Rick, we were only kidding.

Craig Bundy--All-Conference, All-City Defensive back. He had eight interceptions and 42 tackles.

Jack Haskell--All-Conference, All-City Defensive tackle. Jack also played offensive end and scored two t.d.'s by accident.

Mike Doyle--All-Conference Offensive guard.

We're No. 1

Gee, thanks, Smitty.

Joe Hentges, the best center in the conference.

John O'Connell--All-Conference Defensive back. He always got the toughest opposing player.

Could I lend you a hand?

The greatest Offensive Unit in the city of Decatur: Jim Forbes, Jack Haskell, Pat Smith, Mike Doyle, Mike Boyd, Bob Norton, John Chizevsky, Rick Forbes, Jim Feriozzi. Back Row: Mark Bushell, Joe Hentges, Mike O'Connell. All right!

Mark Bushell—All-Conference, All-City half-back. Mark was second in city scoring with 78 points and Mike Boyd's favorite receiver.

Jim was third in city scoring and third on the team in total offense.

John Chizevsky—All-Conference, All-City Offensive tackle; All-Conference Defensive tackle. What more can you say?

Big Hoss making a hole for Mark.

Mike Boyd voted the teams Most Valuable Defensive Player is also adept at "handling the ball."

St. Teresa has completed a second straight winning season. They started the season with the potential to be a title contender; but because of inconsistency were unable to grab the title, as defeat kept them from rising to the top. Dave Fisher led the team with a host of holdover stars in Rick Forbes, John Chizevsky, and Mike Boyd. Craig Bundy and Jack Haskell were singled out as the conference heavies. In summing up the season it was a little short of the team goal and potential, but it was a fine season, one of the best. Bulldog memories include scoring 105 points against Monticello (and they're supposed to be champs), and managing to end the season scoring a total 1,610 points while opponents all together could only manage 1,475. That's a winning season!

and better than the rest.

GROW!

Right: Mark has that slick look on his face to match his quick hands. As a part-time starter and sixth man "Becko" earned a varsity letter.

Right: Is that really a smile on John "Chevy" Chizevsky's face? Prompted by his preceding season as a junior and the undefeated football team this year, it takes all that to make him smile.

We didn't win them all but . . .

St. Teresa's J.V. team carried a 9-8 record this season. Led by a shifty Mike Hefernan, the J.V. team improved tenfold from beginning to end. Another wheel of the team was Dennis Henderson, a junior. The 6-5 addition showed that the squares were beginning to be rounded off as he came around towards the end. The J.V.'s were supported by a strong bench that Coach Munn frequently dipped into. The freshmen posted an 8-9 record playing inconsistent ball, but have the potential to become one of the best. Led by Jeff Hanapel and Scott "Biff" Bundy the freshmen featured an upset of Stephen Decatur for a finale. Right oooooon! Freshmen!

The entire St. Teresa bench is held in awe by the finesse of their counterparts on the hardwood.

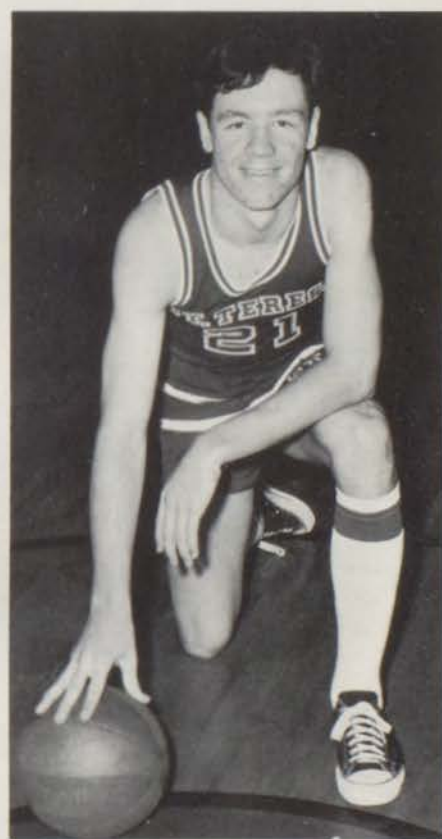

that's the way the ball bounces.

Gumbo guns a jump shot up over a screen by Mark Beck, as Rick Forbes and Bundy watch.

Senior Jim Boehm demonstrates how to shoot his rafter-high jumpers.

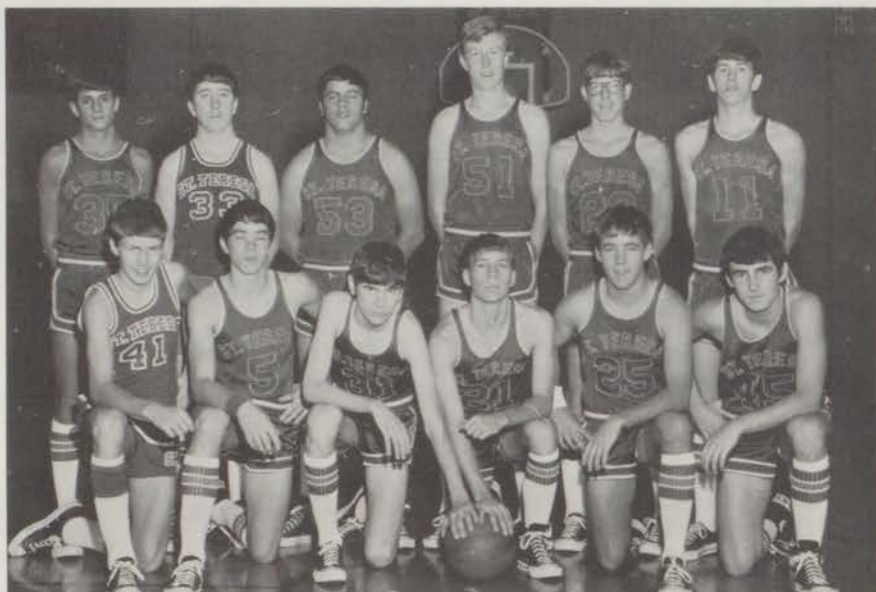

Craig Bundy enjoyed his audiences as he often spiced up a game with some razzle-dazzle.

Bulldogs buy another winning season

Big Jack Haskell, popularly called "Hoss," pumps in two from the key. His shooting and general play were attested as he won the Free Throw trophy and the Most Improved Player award.

J.V. TEAM. Row 1: Joe Rudolph, Marty Robinson, Jack Roney, Tom Miller, Brett Arsenault, Bill Downing. Row 2: Joe Eller, Mike Heffernan, Pat Althoff, Dennis Henderson, Kent Richards, Tim McElroy.

If Dave Fisher gets a step on the opponents, he'll be gone for two. Here he is proving the point.

Right: Rick Forbes is trying to think the ball through the hole before he releases. Rick was a season long starter as he started to come around for ST. T.

Fast, furious to the finish-track.

Some of the track highlights of this year were John O'Connell's record-setting 15.5 in the high hurdles and 21.0 in the low hurdles. Mark Bushell jumped 20'2" in the long jump and did the 220 in 23.0. Bob Shiel ran the 880 in 2:02.8. The Medley Relay team of Bushell, Feriozzi, Jackson, and Shiel set a record of 3:57.4 at the Cerro Gordo Invitational at which the team placed third. St. T. won 5 out of 7 meets.

John O'Connell shows his winning style in the high hurdles.

Track Team: Front row: J. Feriozzi, B. Shiel, S. Rudolph, T. Miller, S. Pruemmer, U. Cabrera, T. Feriozzi, J. Jones. Second row: T. McElroy, O. Dicker, K. Craig, S. Bundy, J. Jackson, P. Doyle, R. Tapscott, K. Laughery, P. Vercellino. Back: Coach Munn, J. Olson, B. Burttschi, D. Ballance, D. Brumleve, B. Norton, M. Bushell, T. Uhl, J. O'Connell, J. Chicoine, M. Doyle.

The relay team of Doyle, Feriozzi, Jackson and Bushell.

Phil Schaefer-who else?

Manager Duffy Dougherty.

The Infielders Steve Higar, Rick Forbes, Mike O'Connell, Brett Arsenault, Alan Hall, Mark Feldman, Steve Landholt.

Rick wavin' 'em home.

The pitchers talking it over: Mark Feldman, Gerard Bernard, Mike Heffernan.

Charlie Brown's non-winning team is NOT the Bulldog team. Although the Baseball Bulldogs had a not-so-terrific season with a record of 3-8, prospects look pretty good for next season. We may be losing Phil Schaefer with his .333 batting average, but we will have Mark Feldman returning to continue his winning pitching. And there's always those cute bat-girls!

The hard guys Steve Jobe, Dan Delatte, Tom Feather, and Pat Althoff.

Talkin' it over at the Mt. Zion game.

The good lookin' bat-girls Sue Althoff and Ann Clements.

The catchers Steve Jobe, Mike Doolin, Phil Schaefer.

The Golf Team, in its second year at St. Teresa boasted Jim Turner as medalist with a score of 78. Bob Shiel golfed an 85, Bob Gray 93 and Bill Ward 91.

Bob Shiel, David Long, Jim Turner, Bill Ward, Bob Gray are members of one of St. T.'s newest teams.

CLASSES

Freshmen launch new friendships.

Officers of the frosh fleet are Pres. Scott Bundy, Sec.-Treas. Laura Riedman, and Vice-Pres. Brian Smith.

Freshmen make waves.

"Take care with the beginning of friendship--for the end will always manage itself." Heed these wise words, and savor the beauty of friendship.

Trick or treat?

"Laughter is not a bad beginning for friendship" Oscar Wilde once said, and the freshmen found out!

Clockwise: John O'Connell gets a gift from Peggy Yonker representing guess who? Freshman beauties parade. Frosh await the decision of the distinguished judges. The winners: "Miss" Burger and "Piggy" Morthland. But remember that the greatest oak was once a little nut that held its ground.

Sophomore friends—the best kind.

A truck load of "Super-Sophs."

Fred hits the "hotline" as Mary and Amy assist. They are Sec.-Treas. Mary Turner, Pres. Fred Lohrstorfer and Vice-Pres. Amy Beck.

To the wise, life is a festival.

Happiness keeps best when kept in circulation, and the sophs have kept it going. Some may have said that it's "No Big Deal," but, deep inside, they know it's bigger than they can imagine.

Friendship - - a ring Juniors treasure.

Fr. Peradotto celebrates with the Juniors the many rings of friendship and love in their lives.

Christ has drawn His ring about us and wants us, in turn, to draw rings of love around others, including as many as we can, never shutting anyone out.

Tom Feather thinks back to the good ole days.

Fr. Peradotto presents Tammy Cloyd with her ring.

Craig Bundy receives his class ring.

Let me laugh with my friends.

"... and I see Kevin and Barb and Dennis and Becky and Lisa and so many others, smiling and laughing-together."

Juniors--going places, together.

Junior class officers were: Treas. Joan Heynen, Vice-Pres. Pete Vercellino, Pres. Terry Uhl and Sec. Becky Eller. Juniors have formed friendships that stand the test of time. Although it's not always smooth sailing, their "friend-ship" stays a-FLOAT.

"... After the long summer (between Frosh and Soph years) we were expected to have matured into young adults, but some of us I'm afraid, missed the boat and, man, I didn't even have a ticket. Sophomore year was a long year, but in between that September and May we had a royal blast. So now it's late in Junior year. About this time next year it'll be our turn to leave St. Teresa. I know for me, my short stay at St. Teresa has been something I wouldn't have missed for the world. And when it's our turn to leave, we hope you will remember us as a Class with a lot of class."—Tom Feather

Somewhere . . . You've got a friend.

SENIORS

Growing apart, together.

DIFFERENT ROADS

It's too bad that we as friends have become older and for some reason have grown farther apart.
I guess our roads lead us to different places and require of us a different kind of heart.

So many times it's happened, yet so sad
a history repeating in our time.
The songs we hear cannot be near the same even though we know they both have rhyme.

But I'll remember you as one I used to know so well that I could call you my best friend,
I'll remember that your path used to run right next to mine,
and once we wished that it would never end.

—John Skelley

Three of the seniors' best friends are Pres. Pat, Vice-Pres. Pam and Sec.-Treas. Teri.

SENIOR MEMORIES

"Open your eyes" - to Awards Day.

The Chansonettes sing, "Morning Has Broken" on very special morning.

St. Teresa Award winner Pat Smith receives his award.

Salutatorian Mary Anne Bunker receives her award.

Poet Laureate John Skelley prepares to read his poem, printed below.

Jan Turner receives the Brintlinger award from Mr. Harold Brintlinger.

Dr. Paul Thomas presents George Hubbard with the Royal Arcanum Award.

All my friends, I will remember them in the times of want and need,
The hands that I saw when I failed,
and the smiles when I would succeed.

I'll remember how a day could be so dull
then a friend by chance appears,
And the feeling of distant loneliness is replaced by feeling near.

And all the small disturbing things that try a patient heart,
Meant nothing at all when a thoughtful friend would come and take my part.

But most of all I will remember the joyful moments never spared.
Knowing they'd be meaningless
if not with friends were shared.

—John Skelley

The first winner of the "Mr. Kelly Award" is congratulated by Mrs. Ahola.

Seniors, remember . . .

Annie Got Her Gun.

"Charlie Davenport" Vince opens the show by doing what he does best--shocking everybody.

"Annie" Penny tells the audience, "You can't get a man with a gun!"

"Buffalo Bill" Pat, Leslie, John and Vince convinced everyone there's no business like sho' biz.

"Frank Butler" John croons about the girl he'll marry.

Jennie, Kelly, Mary, Russ and Penny sing about "Doin' what comes natcherly."

That swollen-headed stiff Frank lets it be known that he's a bad, BAD man!

"Annie" Leslie amazes the crowds in her final shootin' match.

The senior play evolved into an all-school musical this year, "Annie, Get Your Gun," with two Annies.

The cast of "Annie" takes a bow and presents Mrs. Hunsinger, the mastermind and director of the show, with well-deserved roses. Mrs. Vest coached singing and Mrs. Beck was choreographer.

"Annie" Leslie sings her heart out about her infuriating Frank.

"Porter" Jeff tries to throw Charlie and Dolly off the train due to an Indian uprising. This time the Indians won.

"Sitting Bull" Bill prepares to give Dolly a haircut.

"Annie" Leslie draws a bead on "Dolly" Necia to the amazement of "Mr. Wilson" Kevin.

At the fancy dress ball--Mrs. Beck's help with dancing was appreciated.

Talent from all the classes combined and was refined in long, long rehearsals.

At Graduation the Class of '73

There's a new world coming,
And it's just around the bend.
There's a new world coming--
This one's coming to an end.
There's a new voice calling,
You can hear it if you try . . .

Mr. Thomas Butler, Commencement Speaker

Fr. Chiola, Master of Ceremonies

COMPLIMENTS OF BURGER CHEF, 2950 N. MAIN

moves into a new world.

Debbie Ochs earned a grade point average of 3.97 out of a possible 4.0 to gain the honor of Valedictorian.

Cathy Heneghan accompanies some Senior girls as they sing "New World Coming."

COMPLIMENTS OF RED CARPET CAR WASH, 2780 N. WATER.

Remember way, way back . . .

Spring is . . . Prom.

"Spring is Discovery" for Bill Thompson, Laurie Welch, Steve Jobe and his date.

Electric shock from the wrap? No, surprise-photograph-shock.

Ann Benjamin and Pete Vercellino enjoy a dance at the prom.

Jim Turner and date are greeted at the door.

To have a friend, be a friend.

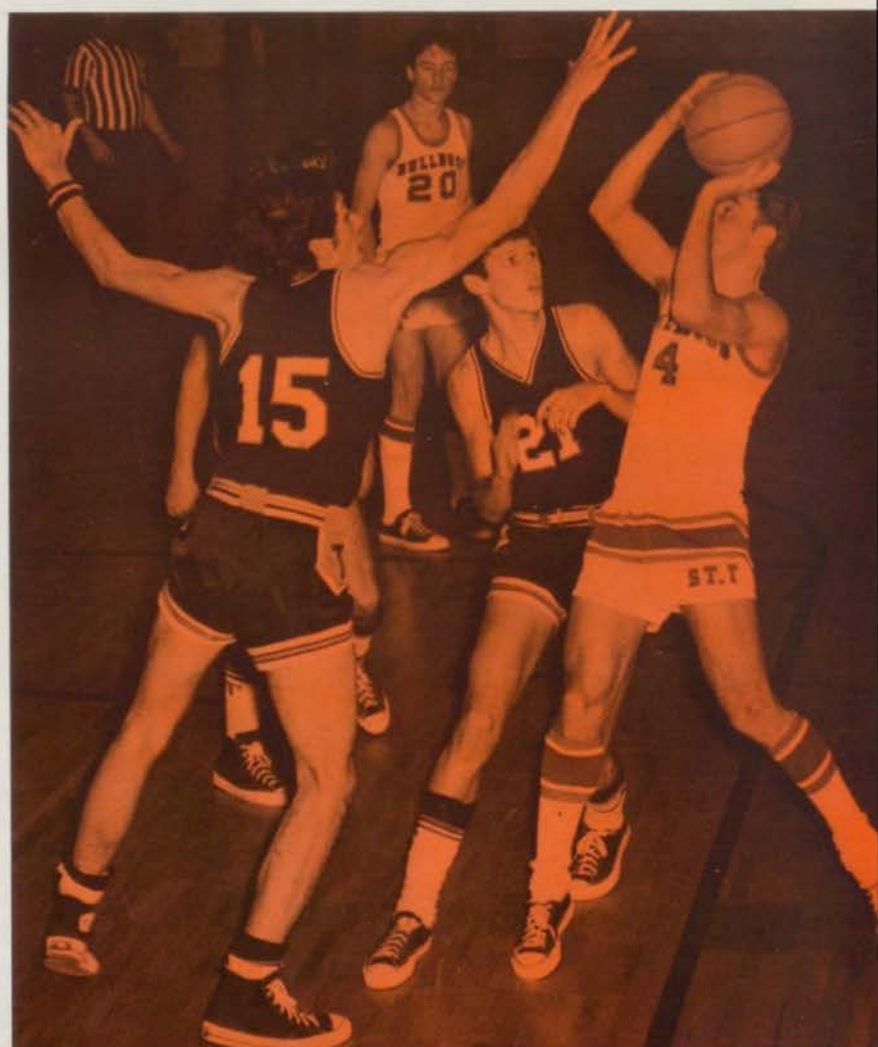

USED TO BE
 It used to be so easy,
 can you remember when?
 We could almost save a night
 and spend it once again.
 But the past, yes, it's like that
 and never lets us know,
 How tomorrow will find us
 or where we're going to go.
 Days pass by like minutes
 and faces often forget,
 That you were once a friend
 that they never would regret.
 Yesterday, oh yesterday
 you see everything I do,
 Tell me why is it so easy to be a friend with you?

—John Skelley

I have room for one more friend --

The pitter patter of little WHAT?

and he is every man.

Once upon a yearbook,

Being an editor is:

Staying in a 2x2 darkroom, faithfully shaking developing fluid for three hours. Or was it four? It's hard to see a clock in the dark.

Discovering on the day the football pictures are to be taken that the football coaches don't talk to each other.

Living at school during deadline week, since your dad keeps insisting he really does need the car.

Trying to write this paragraph in 10 minutes and managing to do it in an hour.

Yelling at staff members, "Quit looking at the pictures and WORK!" Then sitting down to look at the pictures yourself.

Trying to fit a long, skinny picture into a square, and a triangular picture into a circle.

Teri pleads, "Please, Sue, I think I've got the London flu. Can't I go home? It's almost midnight. How many more pages? Twenty?!"

Working hard, or pretending to be are staff members Cindy, Kathy, Cathy, Pam, Angy, Leslie, Donna and Gina.

Here is the main force behind it all. She looks tired—and she should. She looks HALF-DEAD, and often she was. For reliability and hard work, Sue couldn't be beat. And she only threatened to quit 19 times. What's that, Sue? OK. Make that 20.

Now that this is the end there's plenty to smile about for Mary Kay, Debbie, Karen, Gail, Martha, Jeanne, Leslie and Sue.

Carla, at work, before her nervous breakdown.

"Stop taking those idiotic pictures and get to work." Dracula, sometimes known as Scrooge, gives advice to all the victims on the staff.

Those late night-meetings that went on from 3 p.m. till 3 a.m. . . . yawn . . .

Carla's favorite picture of Jim. Reminds her of rhetoric.

Kevin M. Laughery

Staff artist.

What! This picture is going in the YEARBOOK!?!

Teri, Miss Yearbook, does her stunning editor-pose for Leslie and Donna.

Editors-in-chief Carla and Sue file away some members for next year--Karen, Ann, Margi and Trena.

Being an editor also is:

Having everyone in the school hate you for the way their pictures turn out.

Missing King-Kong on Saturday morning because you're out at school cropping pictures.

Being more familiar with Room 208 than your own room at home.

Going slowly but surely insane, and loving every minute of it!

We say goodbye to you, friends.

Last, but far from least, we remember workers Marianne, Cheryl, Marilyn, Jeff, Debbie, Candy, Becky (again!), Karl, Libby, Onno and Kathy (again!).
