Rites Set for Henry Hibbs

Henry P. Hibbs, 73, of Blue Mound, formerly of Decatur, died at 12:01 a.m. Monday at the Veterans' Hospital in Danville, where he had been a patient about 10 days.

Mr. Hibbs, a retired carpenter, was born June 19, 1892, in Louisville, the son of William and Anna Moody Hibbs.

He lived in Decatur before moving to Blue Mound about nine and one-half years ago. Mr. Hibbs served in the armed forces during World War I.

Surviving are two nieces, Marie Cowger of Blue Mound, and Alice Crawley, Decatur; and a nephew, John Hibbs of Route 7, Decatur.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Ater Funeral Home in Blue Mound, with burial in Boiling Springs Cemetery near Decatur. Friends may call at the funeral home after 5 p.m. today.

Thompson of Chicago passed through Clinton Wednesday morning in I. C. office car No. 11 enroute to Havana where they will spend a few days hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Corwin of New Castle, Ind., are the parents of a girl, their first child, born recently. She has been named Nancy Ellen. Mr. Corwin was formerly manager of the Montgomery-Ward store in Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hugley of Mississippi are the parents of a boy, their third child. Mr. and Mrs. Hugley are former residents of Clinton.

Insurance Adjusters Here

Representatives of several insurance companies were here Monday, adjusting the loss on the Reeser buildings recently damaged by fire.

Appraisal was made and approved by the court in the estate of R. B. Mayall. A petition was also filed in the same estate for certain property to be conveyed to Ida M. Mayall, surviving widow. The petition was filed by R. H. Wilson as attorney for the estate.

Two Clinton families moved from Clinton to other cities this week, the recent lay-off at the I. C. shops being the cause. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ehret moved to Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Sims and family to St. Louis, Mo. The Ehrets lived over the Bonnet shop and the Sims family resided in the Montgomery property on North George street.

RURAL CARRIER DIES

William Henry Hibbs, 75, rural route one of Decatur died at the Decatur and Macon county hospital at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday morning. He had been suffering for two years as a result of a paralytic stroke. When a second stroke overtook him Tuesday he was taken to the hospital where he died.

He was born in Petersburg, August 16, 1852 and has lived in and near Decatur for the past 20 years. Until he retired about two years ago he was a carpenter. He was a member of the First Methodist church.

Mr. Hibbs leaves two children: John F. and Henry P. Hibbs of Decatur and brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mandy Jones and Henry Hibbs of Petersburg; Mrs. Lou Hurd, Athens; Robert Hibbs, Springfield John England half brother Iowa and Nellie Hibbs of Rock Port, Indiana.

The body was removed to J. J. Moran and Sons and prepared for burial. Funeral announcements will be made later.

HAND BADLY BURNED

William Bowman received a badly burned hand while at his work, welding, at 231 South Franklin street, Wednesday. He was taken to the Decatur and Macon county hospital by Moran's ambulance. After the hand had been dressed he was released from the hospital.
