What is Homecoming? . . . Excited plans, an air of eager anticipation, hoped for meetings?

This is Homecoming for us;

An assembly with witty emcees . . . exciting acts, and a genuine interest that grows from the school and the friends within.

Homecoming to the committees, is ten thousand heartbreaks or disappointments happily-tempered with year-long moments of unforgettable bliss. It is a time of exhaustion, a time of frayed tempers . . . yet after it is all over, there is vast relief . . . and pride.

Homecoming is an unheard crush of autumn leaves, it is singing, boisterous laughter, it is the football team fighting for glory . . . but, in reality, the final score is unimportant to victory.

Homecoming is a queen with a radiant face and bubbles hidden inside; it is her day which lasts forever; it is a day of beauty for the whole court. And reigning over this event is our 1969 General's Sweetheart, Miss Debbie Studebaker, to whom we dedicate this section of the yearbook . . .

Cafeteria Candies

Let's see . . . that's two plate lunches, four pieces of pie, and 6 cartons of milk!

"Hmm . . . I wonder if I should have gotten cherry pie instead of lemon."

"Ooh, did you hear about that new dessert they're serving?!"

What's everybody staring at . . . haven't they ever seen a glass of water?

Heh, heh . . . got away with more than one napkin.

All in a day's work.

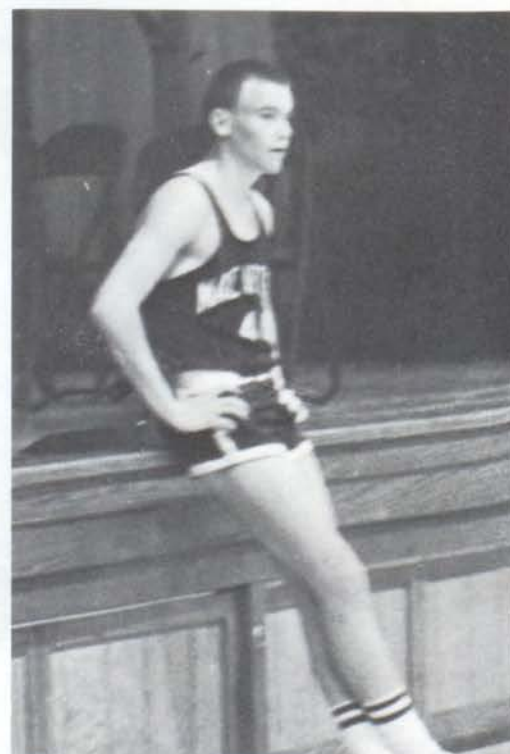

Wakeup, C.O.!

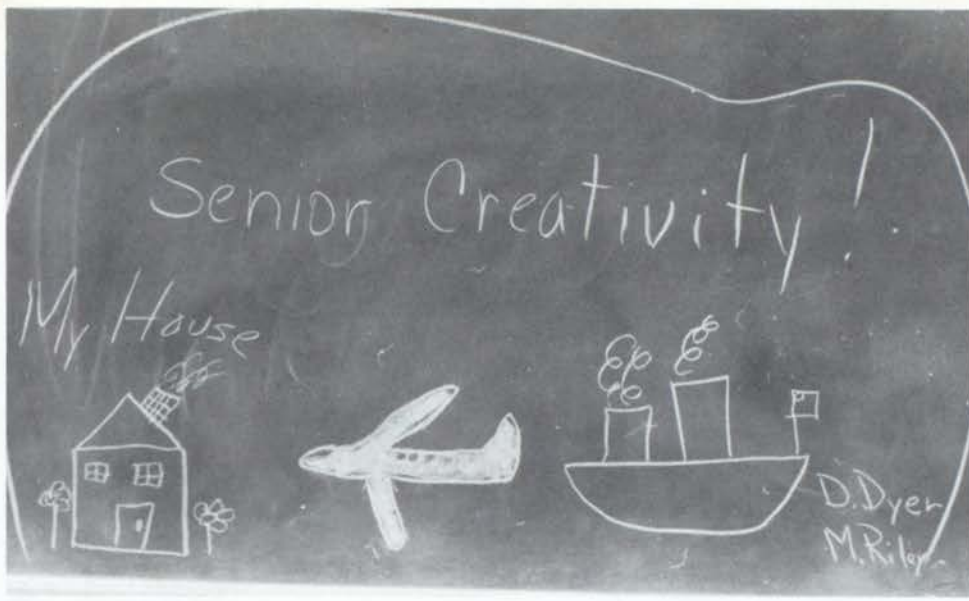

I did WHAT!?!?

That's ex-ZACH-ly what I said

No applause, just money.

No explanation needed.

- - -And The Monitor Editors Fall Through Again!

In an effort to keep improving the image of the "Monitor" the editors and staffs tried to reveal issues of vital concern to the students of Mac and other high schools. In addition to continued coverage of school news and athletic events, the paper devoted special issues to drag-racing, entertainment, and curriculum. The "Monitor" editors looked to the future by sponsoring a workshop for underclassmen who will carry in the tradition of a great paper.

The Generals finished the 1969 gridiron season with a record of 2--7--0. If 100% effort would assure victory, we would have been undefeated this season. However, numerous mental mistakes and bad breaks seemed to be our downfall. Highlights of the season were our 21-0 victory of Canton and our 38-21 conquest of Lanphier.

ENTER THE YOUNG—

Leaving

As silvery song runs in my mind,
Calls back to me a time now gone
Beyond my reach. Now can I hold
But fragments of that time.

A thousand songs run thus in me
And bring to me a thousand scenes
Not past by long-but long enough
To drift away from me.

As I recall, I strain to hear
The silver voices of old friends;
I hear them but as echos faint
Like sea waves in a shell

Those days were free as birds in flight,
And beautiful. And though I go
They live with me. They grow into another day

which with tomorrow comes.

Please buy from our advertisers-their support helps to make the publication of your Cadet possible.

The thirteenth publication of the Cadet without the guidance of Robert C. Lamar has not been an easy one. Even though he was unable to help us this year, we have been privileged to have the fine leadership of Mr. Sam Kohr and Mr. J. J. Maurer. Also, we would like to extend our thanks to Mrs. Lindquist, Mr. John Straub of the American Yearbook Company and all of the students who have helped. A very special thanks to photographer John Raber who helped us tremendously in the making of this yearbook without whose help the Cadet would not have been.
